

Call for Papers

Internationales Netzwerk Hegels Relevanz

Tagung 2019:

Logik und Moderne. Hegels Wissenschaft der Logik als Paradigma moderner Subjektivität

Logic and Modernity. Hegel's Science of Logic as paradigm of modern subjectivity

Veranstalter in Jena: Folko Zander und Klaus Vieweg

Date: June 27–29, 2019

Place: Friedrich-Schiller Universität Jena, Zwätzengasse 12, Raum Z1

Submission deadline: March 15, 2019

Notification of acceptance by May 1, 2019

Presentation time will be 25 minutes

Conference languages: German and English

Keynote speakers: Christian Krijnen, Folko Zander, Max Gottschlich, Jean-Francois Kervegan (angefragt)

Das Internationale Netzwerk Hegels Relevanz bittet herzlich um Einreichungen von Beiträgen für die diesjährige Netzwerkkonferenz.

Ungeachtet des Mythos, nach welchem Hegel in seiner Philosophie das Besondere zugunsten des Allgemeinen unterdrückt, kann Hegel als der Philosoph betrachtet werden, welcher die Wichtigkeit der Besonderheit als entscheidenden Teil des Freiheitsbegriffs betont. Die dritte Konferenz des Internationalen Netzwerkes Hegels Relevanz rückt die Beziehung zwischen dem Besonderen und dem Allgemeinen in Hegels Logik und ihre Rolle in Hegels Begriff der Subjektivität als zentralem Teil seiner Philosophie der Freiheit in den Vordergrund. Näher sollen die Wurzeln von Hegels Freiheitskonzept in seiner Logik, dessen Wirkung auf bzw. Relevanz für die moderne Gesellschaft, gegenwärtige Diskussionen in der Philosophie sowie der Politikwissenschaft und der Sozialtheorie erörtert werden.

The International Network Hegel's Relevance /Internationales Netzwerk Hegels Relevanz cordially invites submissions for the yearly Network Conference.

Despite the myth that Hegel tried to suppress particularity in favor of universality, Hegel can be regarded as the philosopher who stresses the importance of particularity as crucial part of the concept of freedom. The third conference of the international network focusses on the relation between the particular and the universal in Hegel's Logic and its role in Hegel's concept of subjectivity as a pivotal part of his philosophy of freedom. Furthermore, the roots of Hegel's idea of liberty in his Science of Logic will be discussed, its impact on modern society, and its influence on current discussions in Philosophy, Political and Social Theory, and Law. We welcome papers on any aspect of the topic. The aim of the papers should be systematic rather than merely historical-philological. The conference aims at stimulating fruitful exchanges between established scholars, junior researchers, and PhD students.

The presented papers will be considered for publication in the peer-reviewed series 'Critical Studies in German Idealism' (BRILL: Leiden/Boston). Publication language: English.

Abstracts (no more than 500 words!) should be sent as attachment (PDF) to folko.zander@uni-jena.de Abstracts should be prepared for double-blind review by removing any identification details. The author's name, paper title, institutional position and affiliation, as well as contact information and a short CV, should be included in the body of the e-mail, with 'Submission Hegel Network 2018' in the subject line.

We assume that financial assistance will be available for hotel costs (2 to 3 days). At this stage, however, we cannot indicate a specific amount.

Information about the conference and the network will be available on <http://clue.vu.nl/en/activities/hegel-network/index.aspx>

Organization: Steering committee of the International Network Hegel's Relevance / Internationales Netzwerk Hegels Relevanz: Jiri Chotas (Prag), Paul Cobben (Tilburg), Max Gottschlich (Linz), David James (Warwick), Christian Krijnen (Amsterdam), Tereza Matějčková (Prag), Alberto Siani (Pisa), Klaus Vieweg (Jena), Jean-François Kervegan (Paris), Benno Zabel (Bonn). The conference in Jena is technically organized by

Folko Zander
folko.zander@uni-jena.de

and

Klaus Vieweg
klaus.vieweg@uni-jena.de